PRESENTATION, SIZE REQUIREMENTS, LABELING OF ACCEPTED ARTWORK

- All accepted two-dimensional work must be mounted or matted in white, gray or cream mats. Colored liners (maximum width of 2 inches) are acceptable if placed under the presentation mat.
- Stretched canvases are allowable.
- FRAMED WORK IS NOT ACCEPTABLE.

- All work must have permanent identification (student's name, mailing address, school name, and county) attached to the back, bottom, or inside of the piece.
- An official entry label from the Florida State Fair must be TYPED and SIGNED by the student and teacher. Accuracy is extremely important since the display labels will be made from this document.
- Every entry must have the label form attached. On wrapped work, labels must be placed outside the acetate.
- ART WITH ILLEGIBLE OR INCOMPLETE FORMS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED!!!

PACKAGING

- PLEASE NOTE: All possible care is taken to protect the works of art, but neither the Florida State Fair Authority nor the Department of Education can be responsible for loss or damage.
- All works of art must be in strong, reusable, well-marked and labeled containers to assure safety of the art and its proper return to the owner.
- Counties will send all flat work to the exhibition in containers strong enough to return the work.
- Each container should be legibly marked with the school name, address and county.
- Each 3-D work must be packed in a single container strong enough to be handled on a truck and must have sufficient packing material to protect it from possible damage.
- The container must be constructed strongly enough and in such a manner that the art can be repacked several times.
- The OUTSIDE of the container must be legibly marked with the artist's name, address, school name, and county, and a duplicate of the entry label. (Use copy of label enclosed.)

ANY WORKS ON EXHIBITION MAY NOT BE REMOVED BEFORE THE CONCLUSION OF THE 2011 FLORIDA STATE FAIR.

ART WORK MAY NOT BE AVAILABLE AFTER THAT TIME.

These regulations have been designed to provide a manageable exhibition, which will have a positive impact on the viewers of the State Fair. Students are encouraged to produce creative and imaginative works of art that do not fit this exhibition format.

However, counties are asked to forward only work that meets the guidelines set forth in this prospectus.
